Margaret Downey, one of Greenway's longest serving volunteers, celebrated her 70th birthday recently and in recognition of her special day Helen Smyth presented her with a gift from the Board and Staff. We hope you had a wonderful day Margaret!

This year's International Women's Day theme is 'World Changing Women' and the world-changing women from Greenway's Women's Empowerment Project, MAS Maternal Mental Health Project and Recycled Teenagers got involved in an Art Project to create a wall of positivity, full of inspiring messages of strength, hope and support!

Congratulations to Greenway volunteer Stephanie Waite who visited Stormont on Friday 4 March to take part in Northern Ireland's first ever Women's Parliament! Stephanie was one of 20 women invited by the Women's Policy Group to share their lived experiences in the Assembly Chamber and her topic was Poverty and Austerity. It's not easy to stand up and make yourself heard and we are extremely proud of Stephanie's achievement!!!
